

Quality Policy

As part of continual Improvement Philadelphia Solar is committed to providing innovative World-Class quality products and services that meet or exceed the expectations of our customers. The highest level of efficiency within Philadelphia Solar will back this quality commitment.

Using the latest technologies, Coordinating with National and International Scientific Resources and Following the National and International standards are our success tools to export nationally and internationally.

We believe that customer is the core process in our quality management system, since we are dedicated to provide the best, maintain and enhance our customer satisfaction, In Addition of involving all employees in supplying quality products and services.

The policy is implemented through the company's Quality Management System, the management and personnel are committed to achieve the above goals throughout establishing quality objectives and continuous improvement.

Quality Dept.